17th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Christ fed the hungry, and did so with great generosity. Here he feeds us with the food of the Eucharist. We receive this precious food, not because we are worthy of it, but because we need it and he invites us to receive it.

To prepare ourselves to receive this food, let us call to mind our sins, and ask the Lord for forgiveness.

Lord Jesus, the eyes of all creatures look to you, and you give them their food in due time.

Lord, have mercy.

You are just in all your ways, and loving in all your deeds.

Christ, have mercy.

You are close to all who call on you, who call on you from their hearts.

Lord, have mercy.

All day from that deep well of life within Himself has He drawn healing for the press of fold, restoring strength, forgiving sin, quieting frenzy, comforting distress. Shadows of evening fall, yet wildly still they throng Him, touch Him, clutch His garments hem, fall down and clasp His feet, cry on Him, till the Master, spent, slopes from the midst of them and climbs the mountain for a cup of peace, taking a sheer and rugged track untrod save by a poor lost sheep with thorn-torn fleece that follows on and hears Him talk with God.

Keep your thoughts positive, because your thoughts become your words.

Keep your words positive, because your words become your behaviours.

Keep your behaviours positive, because your behaviours become your habits.

Keep your habits positive, because your habits become your values.

Keep your values positive, because your values become your destiny.
